College Admissions Information

We are just beginning to collect this information. If you have information that you think should be included, please contact the webmaster at: website@hsc.org.

Applying to a community college that uses the CCCApply form? If you are a "PSA homeschooler" (you homeschooled using the private school in your own home option), then you should check "Attended High School" and not "Homeschooled" on the form. When you check "Attended High School, you will be able to write in your own school name.
